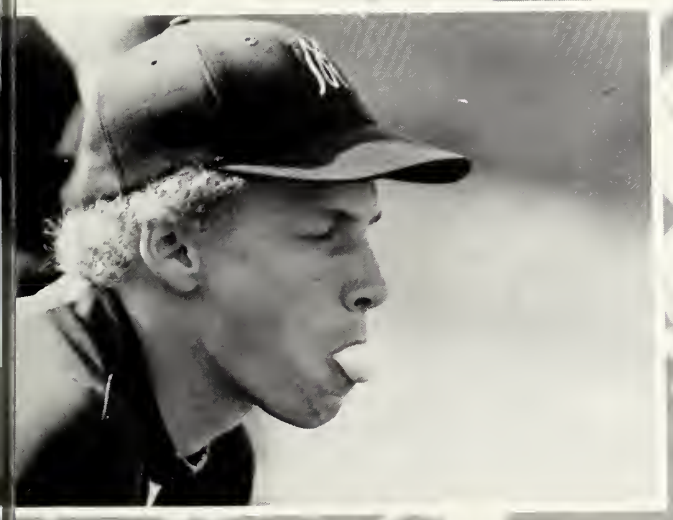
Kevin McCoy

This year, the class of 1985 would like to dedicate its yearbook to Kevin McCoy. Kevin has been a symbol to all of us, a symbol of courage and dedication. Through all that he has faced, he has remained unselfish and even cheerful.

Kevin has made great contributions to Manchester Jr.-Sr. High School-dribbling the Hornet's basketball team to glory and quarterbacking the football team to victory after victory.

We will miss Kevin's name among the "M's" at the graduation of the class of 1985. But although he will not be seated among us, spiritually he will be with all of us, for we will all be thinking of him, wishing him luck in his future and knowing that he will succeed.

FLAMMABLE
KEEP FIRE AWAY



I am no butterfinger!

"Senior Privilege"

Only nine months till graduation!

"Hey Trace, you got what it takes!"

"It worked!"

"Go wild Finnbuck, buck, buck!"

"¡O Dios mio! Es solo otro dia."

"High Patty!"

"What's in the cup, Suze?"

"Maybe this will get me an A in gym."

"Hey bud, let's party!"

"Yes, I am a stud."

"Camera shy"

"Escape!"

"There's nothing like an Aqua-Velva man."

T126
IMPATIENCE

HORNETS
22

"One down and six to go . . ."

"First you graduate from college, then you join the Essex County Club."

"Student activists in action . . ."

"I love you thisss much!"

She still doesn't get it!

You think I should what?!

O.K. Ronnie, this is the plan . . .

Sexy and Seventeen

Totally what?!

"Who me?"

"The Manchester look"

"Bag ladies"

"O[illegible] for bed!"

"Gimme a break!"

"Another camera"

"The drink of the eighties"

Listen now . . .!

Hey, what's your name?

Why don't you just leave us alone!

It's not just a car, it's an Oldsmobile!

What's the matter with kids today?

An awesome foursome

Rough Night, Harsh Light

Let's Be Friends

The House Wine?

George Burns, Jr.

You Been Botherin' My Bro'?

Crush 'Em , Kill 'Em, Knock 'Em Dead

But Guys, She's Got a Good Personality

Risky Business

Long Time

It's Been Such A Long Time.
I Think I Should Be Going.
Time Doesn't Wait For Me. It Keeps On Rollin'.
Sail On The Distant Highway.
I've Got To Keep Chasing A Dream.
I've Got To Be On My Way.
Instead There Is Something I Must Say.
Well I'm Taking My Time.
I'm Just Moving On.
Don't Forget About Me After I've Been Gone.
And I'll Take What I Find.
I Don't Want No More.
It's Just Outside Of Your Front Door.
It's Been Such A Long Time.
It's Been Such A Long Time . . . .

TENTH

Well, it's ten-thirty here in the Cafeteria. The music is loud, the food is bland, and the lighting is dim. We thought we'd get a big crowd. But in the tradition of most of r high school events, no one came to our tenth reunion. Where is everyone? Well:
Tim Allen is serving time for being what John Macenroe never expected, a tennis player trained by Coach York.

Chris Andrews is making Marine history while taking over Cuba — by himself.

Susan Bachman is busy creating new things to bake in her kiln.

David Barrett is busy CatBusting at the Field's.

Nick Battles is throwing an alternate party — on Mt. Washington.

Hugh Bethell is suppressing a revolution.

Kyle Biggar is working his way up at Brown's — today the icehouse, tomorrow the laundromat.

Cindy Blazak is trying to find the right outfit for a reunion.

David Boyd is diving for sunken treasure — the Kronenborg ship went down in mid-Atlantic.

Keith Braunies is spinnin' the beach — again.

Michael Briggs is still waiting in line for tickets to the reunion.

Jonathan Brown isn't here because he's a monk with a vow of silence — Thank God.

Michael Brown is at home — his mother sent him to his room.

Curt Buddenhagen is totally normal — it was just a phase.

Dean Burgess is busy at work as the owner of the Mobil station — though he still lives at home.

Louie Canale is giving a lesson at Hamilton Hill.

Cathy Coen is rebuilding the McDonald's.

Katie Conlon is looking for Cathy — and the bucket.

Ron Corey is hosting the Ninth Annual Chowderfest.

Susan Costello is substitute teaching.

Chris Crane is unwilling to move — maybe because of his bodycast.

David Cutter is playing Happy the Dwarf and whistling while he works — off-Broadway.

Chris Davis is in the middle of a corporate takeover — Chris is buying out John Delorean.

Elisabeth deLaforcade is involved in Foreign Affairs.

Vicki Donellan is assaulting men on vinyl — as the Mixed Singles Twister World Champion.

Robert Dowd isn't in town — he went to a comic book convention instead.

Lisa Dunn is stranded — the Toyota wouldn't start and it was just too far to run.

Chris Finn is still in Europe, trying to complete the Tour de France — he hasn't Finn-ished.

Scott Franklin is driving his 18-wheeler — to nowhere special.

Susan Gamble is in Paris, where she'll soon be a rising talent in the art world — you can bet on it.

Kristin Gillies is at another party — at the Club.

Ellen Gilmore is at home — she sent some whoopie pies.

Gretchen and Jennifer Grady must be late.

Jennifer Greanleaf is in the midwest — she kicked her heels and now she's in Kansas.

Lisa Hall — Oops! The invitation went to Lisa Hall, grade 10.

Sarah Harrington is undecided on the whole thing.

Heidi Harris is busy being a model — but a model what?

Peter Hellwig is still in the Media Center — reading car magazine back issues.

Shawn Johnson is stocking the coke machine.

Jamin Jones is opening for the Partridge Family — at Chewonki.

REUNION

Eva Keville is still driving people home from Springfest.

Danny Klebart is somewhere.

Heather Knox is locked in Brigg's closet — permanently.

Kim Lance is suing the Wendy's Corporation.

Chris Landry . . . forgot.

Andreas Leary is trying to remember what he meant to remember so that he could remind Chris so that Chris wouldn't — ah, nevermind.

Chris MacDonald is beachcoming with a mirror and a brush.

Heather MacDonald is the new Burger King Girl.

Chris Machain is working late for Dean.

Michael Mack had a Mack-Attack and is serving 15-20 for violent assault.

Ross Magers is managing Chris Davis' new plants.

Glenn Manos is petitioning the NFL for a new player category — permanent injury reserve.

Kristine McCoy left for California — #$%&*# the Yearbook!

Scott McCoy is busy running a Hostess Twinky factory.

Heather McLucas is at Bill's ninth reunion.

Laura Metrano has recently been appointed head coach for the B.C. eagles.

Roger Michalowski went O.C. Bigtime — "twelve got him twenty."

David Mineo is still drinking with Cliff, Sam, Coach, and Diane.

Stephen Morgan gave up football and isn't going to throw ten months of psychoanalysis down the drain by coming back here.

Chris Morley is having his own party — it's Saturday.

Helen Nasser is still courting with John

John Nesbit is running his own hair salon — but don't worry, the State is investigating.

Kendra Olson went shopping with Tomi.

Tom Parsons is still trying to find lobster in the Virgin Islands.

Lee-ann Peterson is at the movies picking out her seat.

Amy Rodier is filming an episode of the Carol Burnette show.

Stephen Rooney is missing — he hasn't been seen since the Averill-Nalley murders a few years back.

Patti-Ann Rose is Mr. T's body guard, and this evening they're comparing jewelry.

Suzy Ryding is lost — she couldn't quite remember where they put the school.

Cathy Schirm isn't here — but she isn't there, either.

Mark Smith is watching television — "Charlie's Angels" is on.

Per Storm is waiting for the AAA.

Chris Taron is elsewhere in the building — at the Eighth Grade Dinner Dance.

Betsy Thielbar is picking up guys at Chuck E. Cheese.

Randy Thompson is home with his wife Tasha — or is it Lara?

Traci Tosi was last seen driving away in a black porsche.

Sue Warner is coming up just now — in a pick-up truck.

John Wysocki is jammin' with the Dead — but he still hasn't plugged in his guitar.

Betsy McDonald couldn't make it, but her mother did.

And Pete Kershaw is up on stage, right now, yelling about how nobody comes to this sort of thing, and for that matter . . .

7th & 8th Grade Intramurals

Because many 8th graders participate in the fall sports programs such as cross country, field hockey, and jv football, the intramural program in the fall was geared to the interests of the 7th graders.

The first activity was co-ed softball with competition between homerooms. The victorious homeroom was Mrs. Jerome's with the following students participating: Coleen Wood, Jay Shea, Matt Smith, Bennett Taylor, Tim Smith, and Lewis Wogan.

Mrs. Kilpatrick

Mrs. Jerome

The winning homeroom was presented with a banner to be posted in their homeroom for the school year.

The second activity was field hockey open to both boys and girls. There was a great turnout by the 7th grade boys for this activity.

8TH GRADE

Miss Ford

The third activity was touch football for boys and girls. The two faithful girl participants were Andra Diephus and Chris Mullen.

The fourth activity was a co-ed doubles tennis tournament. Again, Mrs. Jerome's homeroom was victorious. Included in the championship team were Lewis Wogan, Bennett Taylor, Ashley Short, Coleen Wood, Tim Smith, Matt Smith, and Jay Shea.

Intramural basketball competition by homerooms took place in December.

Mrs. Barker

Mrs. Wansong

In January or February the 7th and 8th graders will play against Brookwood. They wil also have a foulshooting contest.

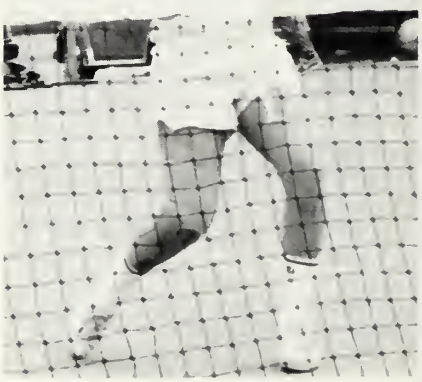
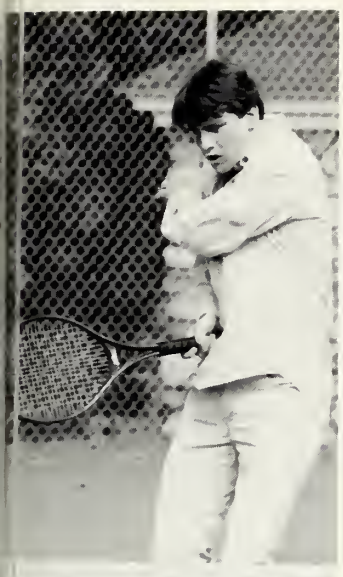
TENNIS

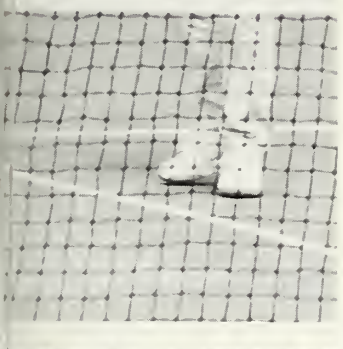
The girls' tennis team finished with a 6-4 record, just shy of qualifying for the state team championship. But the year was a great success, as each member improved as the season progressed.

Individually Erin Sullivan compiled a 9-1 league record. Jean Snow and Anne Eppell won the CAL doubles championship.

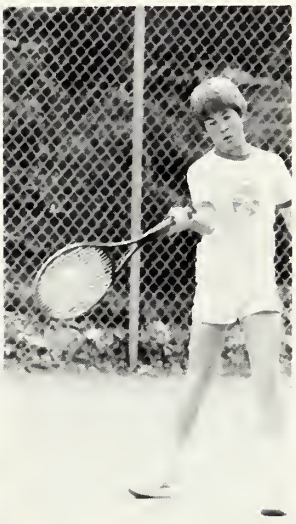
We will miss you Laura, Dina, and Jodi.

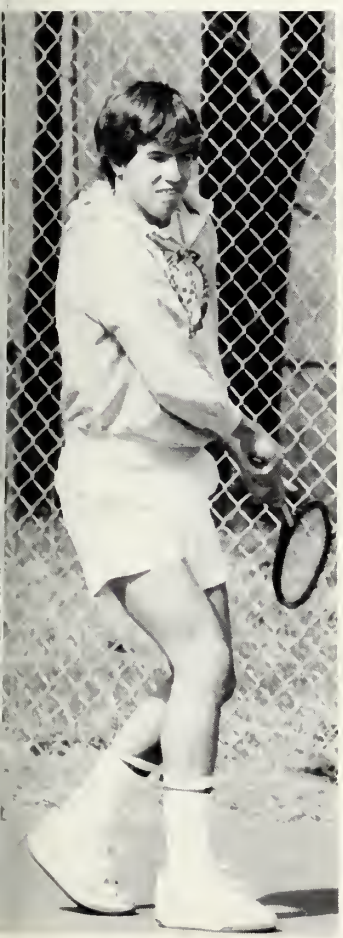


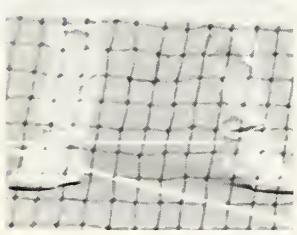




The 1984 edition of the boy's tennis team was coached by Mr. Harry Thompson, who led the team to a Cape Ann League championship once again. The record was 10 and 0 in the league. In the state tournament the team was seeded #1 from last year's state championship and the team record of 28 victories in a row. The team lost in the semi-finals to Dover Sherborn.







BASEBALL

Hornets

Hornets

The Varsity Baseball Team gained a 12-8 record during the regular season and qualified for the state tournament. It was the first state tournament that Manchester has attended in many years. After beating Dorchester in the first game of the tournament the team lost to Matignon and was out of the running. However, it was the best year for Manchester baseball in recent history.

The 1984 varsity softball team had a tough season this year, finishing with a 1-16 record. Hitting proved to be their major drawback. They were led by Senior Co-Captain Karen Pszenny and Junior Betsy McDonald. Seniors Pam Smith and Jean Gilmore along with Betsy McDonald were Cape Ann League Division II all-stars. Betsy was also chosen for the Cape Ann League team. The girls should have a better season this year as they only lost 3 seniors.

DEBATE

THE DEBATE TEAM

Though many of the MHS Debate Team's members found themselves relegated to the old-age section this year, an influx of Freshman immaturity kept the team young, at least in spirit. Like nomads of the plains, the debate team was forced to employ all modes of transportation in order that it could traverse New England in search of competition. And like devout pilgrims, the debaters were rewarded for their efforts with considerable success and material benefit. Mr. Averill continues to lead the team with an intellect and vigor appropriate for his age, though his grip on the team was often threatened by the daring Fearsome Foursome. Their behavior, and that of the authentic and pseudonovices of the younger generation has continued to entertain the varsity establishment. Thus we leave the team with sad hearts, but with confidence that the MHS Debate Team will continue to grow and flourish in the years to come.

The Debate Team: G. Simmonds, H. Osborne, S. Axlerod, K. C. "Jose" Atwood, A. Maio, H. Bethell, C. Chew, N. Sudduth, M. Lawler, Coach Tim Averill, Z. Leber, K. McCoy, J. Leber, M. Abbott, J. Not as innocent as they seem.

The Power Brokers: Treasurer Michael "Moneyman" Brown, NFL Secretary Andrea "Points" Maio, President Hugh R. "Pseudo-god" Bethell, Vice President Sarah "the Queen" Gannett, and Andrea "What?!?" Marston.

More innocent than they seem.

1984 was a building year for the girl's cross-country team. There was a large number of young members. Their performance promises a successful future for the team. Captained by seniors Lisa Dunn, Lisa Hall, and junior Andrea Maio the team had an enjoyable year under the direction of new coach Tammy Mentus. Consistent top performers were Jessica Hayes, Heather Michalowski, and Katina Brown, all who have many years on the team ahead of them.

The boy's cross-country team once again attended a full schedule of meets meets this season. Starting off slow, the team had a disappointing season in terms of record. However, the record does not adequately reveal the enjoyment and improvement attained by every member. Led by tri-captains Mike Brown, Steve Rooney, and Peter Hellwig, the team showed their true force by placing fifth out of twelve teams at the CAL meet, wrapping up the season.

FIELD HOCKEY

Coached by Ruth Baker the varsity field hockey team had a tough season. Their record was 1-9-1, a record not reflective of their excellent play. The team will lose many seniors— Traci Tosi, Helen Nassar, Vicki Donnellan, Elisabeth Delaforcade Sue Costello, Susan Gamble, and Amy Rodier— But looks forward to a strong season next fall.

JV FIELD HOCKEY

Coached by Adrienne Rodier the junior varsity had great season. The team ended with a 6-2-2 record. There is a lot of talent on this young team which will help next year's varsity team to have a great season.

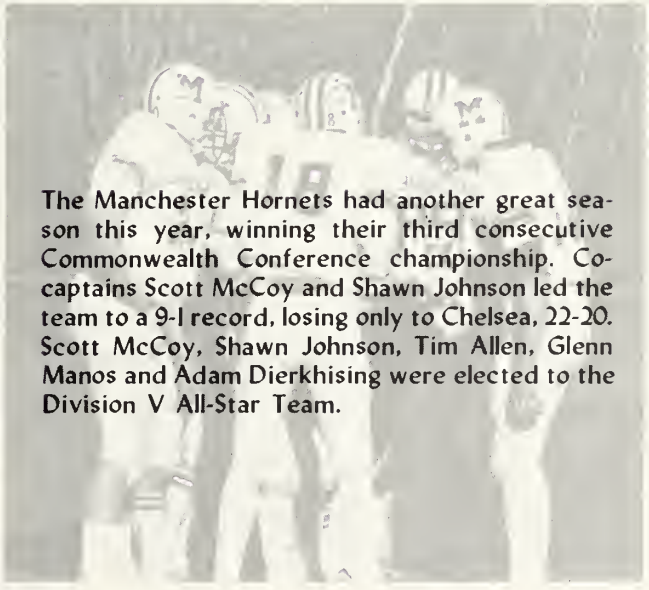
Sieradski. Coaches: Bill Ryan, Tom Beatrice, Fran York, Myles Coen, Dick Ananian, Todd Crane.



The Manchester Hornets had another great season this year, winning their third consecutive Commonwealth Conference championship. Co-captains Scott McCoy and Shawn Johnson led the team to a 9-1 record, losing only to Chelsea, 22-20. Scott McCoy, Shawn Johnson, Tim Allen, Glenn Manos and Adam Dierkhising were elected to the Division V All-Star Team.

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS

This year's cheerleaders, captained by Lee-Ann Peterson, Heather Knox, & Kelley Murray, seemed to embody a new attitude. The relatively large squad of sixteen girls worked hard together and with Coach Mrs. Lattanzi. The hard work paid off, and the Manchester cheerleaders placed second in the CAC cheerleading competition. Their unity and spirit, maintained throughout the season, made the trophy one they truly earned.

BASKETBALL

The varsity basketball team suffered a disappointing year in terms of its 7-9 record, but experienced an enjoyable and fulfilling season. Under the leadership of Coach Herb Schlegel, the team played every game with the intensity and optimism inherent in the Schlegel character.

J.V. BASKETBALL

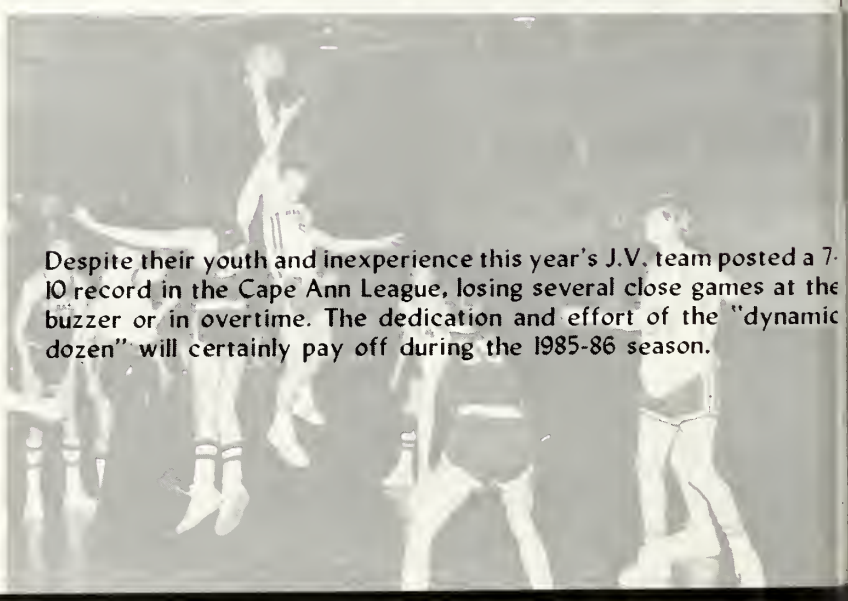
Averill, W. Nebauer, E. Magers, W. Stier, S. Anderson, C. McCoy, D. Donnellan



Despite their youth and inexperience this year's J.V. team posted a 7-10 record in the Cape Ann League, losing several close games at the buzzer or in overtime. The dedication and effort of the "dynamic dozen" will certainly pay off during the 1985-86 season.

J.V. BASKETBALL CHEERLEADING

At a light moment in practice . . .

JV CHEERLEADING

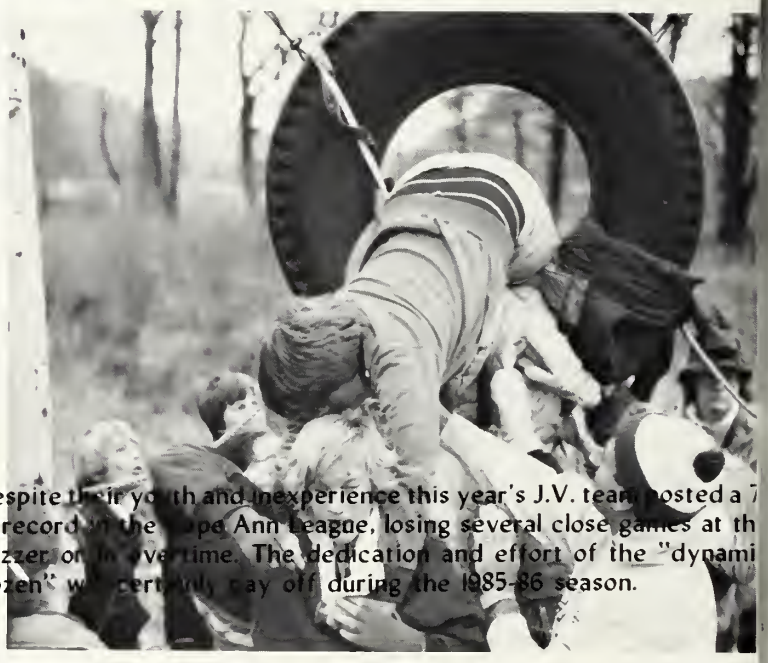
"We've had a tremendous year," JV Cheerleading Coach Heather Knox commented recently. "A great deal of effort, leadership, and dedication has gone into this team, and from all that work we've become really strong." Strong indeed; in a recent Cheerleading 500 ranking, the Manchester JV Cheerleaders were placed among the nation's best — with extremely high scores in the persona projection and team spirit categories.

"The strength and depth of the team," said Knox, "is really reflected in the attention we've gotten from the national cheerleading circuit. Progressive, nouveau-cheer moves like the one pictured here have really brought in the offers. Even our Freshmen cheerleaders have been heavily scouted by professional league teams, independent cheering clubs, and upperclassmen from around the nation."

. . . and in the tension of the game.

PROJECT ADVENTURE

Youth Challenge is an adventure based counseling program which is taken by all eighth grade students. This course is team taught by Mrs. Quinion and Mr. Ananian who conduct the course for the most part out of doors and usually on our Project Adventure ropes course. Curriculum goals include trust, communication, self confidence and self autonomy.



Despite their youth and inexperience this year's J.V. team posted a 7
10 record in the Cape Ann League, losing several close games at th buzzer or in overtime. The dedication and effort of the "dynami dozen" will certainly pay off during the 1985-86 season.

J.V. BASKETBALL

ont Row: M. Martinack, L. Nasson, D. Burgess, M. Kershaw, C. Chew, A. Kershaw Back Row: Coach Joe ello, J. Gould, P. Wood, H. Michalowski, L. Fatalo, L. Canale

he JV's enjoyed a successful season, finishing the eason with a winning record of 13-4. They came in irst in the Cape Ann League Division II competition vith their victory over Georgetown.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To The Seniors:

Soon you will go out into the world or perhaps it is time to say the universe, in all its largeness. For protection and strength we have given you an education in the Manchester Tradition that includes a special version of courses, exams, papers, as well as Chewonki, athletics, proms and a class trip. This Tradition includes the closeness with teachers, friendships built over thirteen years, and an atmosphere of security. Like all great traditions, the strength comes from the repitition of experiences over years, decades, and generations. The common experience binds you to many that have gone before you.

With pride and strength to fall back on it becomes your task to start your own tradition which may mean adding to the present tradition or even breaking with it. This means change which is hard to accept but inevitable. Hard because you are coming from such a strong tradition and inevitable because the world is changing very rapidly. Change is always difficult to digest because it incorrectly implies that what went before was incorrect. My hope is that not only will you realize that change is inevitable, but you will become part of those changes when they are necessary; that you will seize opportunities to control and direct it rather than allowing it to overwhelm you.

Your responsibility in this regard doesn't end with yourselves. There is no doubt in my mind that every student that has had the unique opportunity to participate in the Manchester Tradition should be a leader. The town has presented you with a gift by providing you with the academic background and especially the confidence to be leaders. Having been given the ability it becomes your duty to be the directors and controllers of change for the larger society. With Manchester Tradition as the launching pad, the count down begins on your search for a New Tradition. Fasten your seat belts because it will be an adventurous trek.
